

Lochside Regional Trail System (North)

While not officially part of the Trans Canada Trail – the Lochside Regional Trail provides an invaluable link for travellers visiting the Capital Region by bike or foot. The Lochside Regional Trail is built almost entirely on the old railway line that was constructed during WWI. During its short tenure, a popular summer activity was to take a trip on the No. 500 gas electric passenger locomotive through this picturesque countryside.